

Where community, insight and empowerment begin.

Director of Philanthropy

- A role grounded in purpose.
- A supportive team united by a bold vision and shared passion.
- A strong, strategic mission-driven organization reshaping life and future for people living with dementia.

Consider joining us at the Alzheimer Society of Calgary, where shared values and fresh ideas meet the ambition, energy and encouragement to move them forward. We're searching for the right person to join us full-time as Director of Philanthropy.

You will be accountable for a fund development strategy that compels the local community to engage and support our mission for the long term. In this role, you will advance annual giving, major gifts and planned giving programs in alignment with our organizational strategy and best and emerging practices.

This role provides leadership and ongoing capacity-building for our staff in philanthropy-focused roles and forms a key part of our collaborative operational team. You will also enjoy the opportunity to be part of our leadership team, helping to plan and reinforce a robust, evolving future for our organization.

The right candidate understands the impact of a donor-centered approach. You are experienced in cultivating meaningful relationships with donors, partners, sponsors and other stakeholders.

Our ideal person will require a minimum of five years of experience in a fund development role and post-secondary education in a related field. Demonstrated expertise and results in major gift work would be an asset.

The right candidate is a natural when it comes to big picture thinking while maintaining acute attention to detail. Excellent communication skills (oral and written) round out your qualifications.

This is a growing issue affecting too many families in the Calgary community. The need for local programs and services is ever-increasing, as is the need for increased financial support to make them possible.

Our culture is buoyed by an entrepreneurial-style spirit. We take pride in maintaining a stable yet flexible, team-oriented work environment and work/life balance. This position reports to the Executive Director.

Please submit your cover letter and resume by 4:00 p.m. on Friday, March 5 to:
